

CLEAR YOUR ACTIVE WARRANT

Get back on track without getting arrested

Eligible cases

- Active warrants in Gilpin or Jefferson counties for:
- Non-violent misdemeanors and traffic offenses
  - Select low-level non-violent felonies which have been reclassified as misdemeanors
  - Probation violation warrants for low-level felonies (DF4, F5, F6) and misdemeanor and traffic offenses

Ineligible cases

- Most felony offenses, any weapons offense, escape, arson, tampering, or introduction of contraband
- Victim's Rights Act cases including assault, child abuse, unlawful sexual contact or domestic violence
- Second or more DUI/DWAI

Email 01probation@judicial.state.co.us to check eligibility for probation revocation cases. Check eligibility for all other cases at: warrantforgiveness.golden@coloradodefenders.us

Speak with a criminal defense attorney
Free consultation on eligible cases

Resolve your case or set a new court date

Get back on track to completing probation

Connect with on-site community resources

Fresh Start is a collaborative effort between First Judicial District Attorney Alexis King, the Colorado State Public Defender's Office, the First Judicial District Courts, First Judicial District Probation Department, Jefferson County Sheriff's Office, Jefferson County Justice Services, Gilpin County Sheriff's Office and C3.